ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF STP VISION AND POLICY

The Short-Term Programs of Rosedale International strive to challenge its participants to die to self and live a sacrificial lifestyle. It is our belief that as followers of Jesus we are to expect suffering as well as embrace it in the way of Jesus. "I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world." (John 16:33 NLT) Looking at Jesus' life, we see that he put the mission of the Kingdom above the comfort and safety the world provides. As his followers, we are not promised an easy, prosperous, or straightforward life. In fact, through the years of church history, many have suffered and died so that the spread of the Gospel could continue. We want to prepare and challenge kingdom workers to develop joy and resilience that is not based on personal comfort. If our peace is found in Jesus then we can say with Paul, "I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances." (Philippians 4:11 NIV)

The REACH program involves sacrifices, both big and small. Some are built into the program and may not mirror experiences in "real life", some sacrifices may be completely unexpected and even unwelcome—we cannot predict what will happen. Given the nature of the training and the desire for our participants to look to Jesus, we expect them to rise to the challenge and to embrace simpler and at times uncomfortable circumstances. Practicing a sacrificial lifestyle will include surrendering technology, independence, and certain other freedoms.

We invite you to prayerfully consider if this is something God is inviting you into and if you are willing to engage the realities of sacrifice.

Please state why you would like to join REACH and your thoughts about how you will respond to the challenges you face on this journey of learning and sacrificing.
