ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF STP VISION AND POLICY

The Short-Term Programs of Rosedale International strive to challenge its participants to die to self and embrace a sacrificial lifestyle. It is our belief that as followers of Jesus we are to expect suffering as well as embrace it in the way of Jesus. "I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world." (John 16:33 NLT) The mission of the Kingdom is to bring the Good news to every corner of the world until all have heard. Through the years of Church history, many have suffered and died so that the spread of the Gospel could continue. As we look at Jesus' own life we see a life that put the mission of the Kingdom above the comfort and safety the world provides. We want to practice this self-sacrificial lifestyle as we prepare and challenge kingdom workers.

As we move through the weeks of our program, you will be asked to make sacrifices. Some big and some small. We acknowledge that these sacrifices may not be in line with how "real life" is experienced in the U.S. or even other parts of the world. However, given the nature of the training and our desire for our participants to see Jesus as the only thing they need, we expect participants to rise to the challenge and to embrace a simpler, and at times, uncomfortable lifestyle. We believe that outside circumstances should not dictate our inner peace. If our peace is found in Jesus then we can say with Paul, "I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances." (Philippians 4:11 NIV)

By applying for this program you should come in expecting to practice a sacrificial lifestyle that includes surrendering: technology, comfort, and certain freedoms. We ask that you prayerfully consider if this is something you are able and willing to do. We know that we can't do this on our own or all at once, but our prayer is that this program can aid in developing a lifestyle that reflects a Kingdom way of life. If this is something you would like to join, we would be thrilled to have you join in learning this with us.

Please state why you would like to join and how prepared you feel to start this journey of learning and sacrificing.
